

Sonoma County Adaptation Forum

April 8, 2015 & May 21, 2015

Sonoma County, California

Dear Climate Leader,

We are an alliance of non-profits, agencies, and businesses working together to increase awareness around climate change, climate adaptation and future impacts on Sonoma County. Join us in finding innovative solutions that help us create a thriving community into the future!

Please review our sponsorship packages starting at $500.

Sponsorship funding is used to expand our outreach, improve educational tools, increase community accessibility, keep admission cost low and offset our carbon footprint.

April 8th: Resilience in a Changing Climate

May 21st: Building A Climate-Ready Roadmap

This public forum and follow up workshop brings together individuals, organizations and businesses from across a wide spectrum of sectors and disciplines who are working to ensure that Sonoma County remains vibrant and resilient in a changing climate. Attendees will learn how to make their planning and decisionmaking climate-smart, share what they have learned with others, and explore new and innovative solutions for adapting to climate change.

Join us as we discuss the diverse challenges facing Sonoma County and bring together leading voices on how to respond effectively to climate.
