

SONOMA COUNTY ADAPTATION FORUM

Resilience in a Changing Climate

Sonoma State University
April 8th* • 8:30 am - 5:00 pm
lunch included & reception to follow

Register now:

www.sonomacountyadaptation.org

Brought to you by:

*This is a two part event; the April 8 forum will be followed by a workshop on May 21.

Who should attend?

- Local elected officials and commissioners
- Conservation and natural resource professionals
- Developers
- Health professionals
- Planners, architects, and urban designers
- Students
- Business professionals
- Air quality, flood control, fire and public safety professionals
- Non-profits
- Emergency preparedness and response professionals
- Agricultural producers and industry professionals
- Transportation professionals
- Community members

Who we are: An alliance of non-profits, agencies, and businesses working together to increase awareness around climate change, climate adaptation and future impacts on Sonoma County. Join us in finding innovative solutions that help us create a thriving community into the future! North Bay Climate Adaptation Initiative (NBCAI), Sonoma County Water Agency (SCWA), Regional Climate Protection Authority (RCPA), Sonoma County Water Agency, Sustainable SSU at Sonoma State University, County of Sonoma Energy & Sustainability Division, County of Sonoma Public Health Division, Brelje & Race Consulting Civil Engineers, Leadership Institute for Ecology and the Economy, the Local Government Commission, Sustainable North Bay and Sonoma Ecology Center

*Sonoma County Adaptation Forum is a two part event. April 8 is the forum and May 21 is the follow-up workshop. Full details at www.sonomacountyadaptation.org